Daniel O. Lee

Daniel Orland Lee passed away August 13, 2012 in West Sacramento due to heart failure. He was born in 1959 in Oklahoma and grew up in South Dakota. He and his wife, Janet, moved to Woodland in 1990. He worked for the Yolo Community Care Continuum and the Yolo County Department of Alcohol, Drug and Mental Health. Dan suffered a severe health crisis in 2006, but during the years that followed, he gradually battled back to living independently.

He was a longtime member of the Davis/Sacramento Go Club. He also enjoyed a variety of other games, including D&D, various war games, and bridge. He is survived by his former wife, Janet, his two children, John and Mary, his mother, Nona, and other family members in South Dakota.

[Adapted from his obituary]

I am very sorry to hear that Dan passed away recently. I knew him from many years of involvement with our Go club; I had noticed the last time he was at my house that he seemed to be fighting a battle with some emotional condition, and it is a great shame that a person of his charm and intelligence had to struggle with that. I hope it is some consolation to know that he is very fondly remembered by our club and we will miss him.

Steve Burrall

Dan enjoyed playing Go. In recent years, he was only able to attend infrequently. He would be given a ride to our meetings, and one of the players would drive him home. On the times that I drove him, he would talk about his family, the other games that he played, and military and political history. I was impressed with the depth of his knowledge.

Willard Haynes

I enjoyed his engaging discussions at the Go Club. He was always pleasant and gracious with me and others.
